SPECIAL EVENTS

Wednesday Evening 7:00pm – 9:00pm $10 for registered students $25 for others	Welcome, meet new friends and catch up with old friends! Jennifer Keltner, Quilting Group Editor of American Patchwork & Quilting , will once again kick off Primitives of the Midwest 2011 with a trunk show and lecture. We'll introduce the instructors who will be showing the class projects. There will be some special surprises also! Refreshments will be served.
Thursday Evening	It's been such fun the last several years, it's now a tradition. We'll be traveling to Greenwood once again to check out the antique shops!
Friday Evening	Join us for a wine and cheese party – a relaxing evening with your quilting friends – old and new!
Saturday Morning	Antique and craft sale. Vendors include Michelle from M. Ballard & Co, and Dana Smith & Bonnie Wilson.
Saturday Evening 6:00pm $10	Join us for a wine and cheese party as we wrap up Primitives of the Midwest 2011. A good time to say farewell to old and new friends and make plans for next year.

Watch our website for additional Special Events and demonstrations in the works!!

ONGOING ACTIVITIES

Make It & Take It	We'll have several simple projects available for a small fee at the shop. Instructors will be available if you need any assistance. You may want to get several and "take it, then make it". Check out "Make It & Take It" projects at the shop. These little goodies also are a great keepsake from Primitives of the Midwest.
Open Sew	Enjoy the classroom at Quilter's Station as a place to get together with your friends between classes and sew a stitch or two. Available during shop hours.

Shopping! Quilter's Station will be open normal hours for all your shopping needs.

Lunch Every day lunch will be provided at no extra charge for registered class members.
